Particles of dust are so light and minute that they can be blown away by a single puff.

However, dust accumulates quickly and, if we are negligent, it can pile up so high that the cleaning will become very difficult no matter how hard we attempt to sweep or wipe away.

Our minds, which we are allowed to use freely, will likewise become clouded if we use them in a selfish way.

In due course, we will be unable to understand the divine will or receive God the Parent's blessings.

If only the dusts are cleanly swept away, then all that remains is extraordinary salvation
